

- A book published in 2023
- An author you've never heard of before
- A book with a strong female lead
- A book set in the South
- A book set in the Victorian Era
- A memoir about someone you admire
- A character with a career you wish you had
- A true-crime novel
- A book with an ugly cover
- A play
- A book set during a holiday
- A book about time travel
- A book picked out for you by someone else
- A title that starts with the letter "J"
- A one word title
- An author who uses initials
- A book about a cult
- A character that is an immigrant
- A children's book
- A "beach read"
- The first book you see in the library
- Set in a country you've visited
- A speed read
- A fairy tale
- A book about organized crime/ the mob
- An author who uses a pseudonym
- A book featuring a library
- Chapters have titles
- Household object on the cover
- A non-fiction best seller
- Involving the art world
- A character with super human ability
- A book you've seen someone reading in a public place
- Jane Austen inspired
- A book that has an alternate title
- An unlikely detective
- Author with an X, Y, or Z in their name
- A wealthy character
- Author who's published in more than one genre
- Includes a map
- Over 500 pages long
- Technology-themed
- A bilingual character
- Set in a rural area
- A book with photographs inside
- Involves a second chance
- An indie read
- A job title in the title
- The word "game" in the title
- A western
- Book title starts with the same letter as your first name
- A family member's favorite book

Happy New Year from the Ridley Township Public Library!

Here's a fun Reading Challenge for you to try!

Whether you are a light reader or completely obsessed, this 2023 Reading Challenge is designed to help you read more and to broaden the scope of your reading.

Good Luck and Happy Reading!